

XM Radio is the best breath of fresh air that I have heard on the radio. It is the only source of good music that is uninterrupted by garbage commercials. It is the only stations that I listen to because there are no decent stations in my area. Yes I pay for the service just like cable TV and High speed internet service. Leave XM Radio alone!